

CURLY'S PUB

is named in honor of Pro Football Hall of Famer, Earl "Curly" Lambeau. After co-founding the Green Bay Packers in 1919, Curly would spend the next 30 years of his life as a Packer. In addition to playing halfback from 1919 through 1929, during which he pioneered the forward pass in professional football, Lambeau also served as the team's first and only head coach through the 1949 season. During his 30 years as head coach, he led the Packers to six world championships with an impressive coaching record of 212-106-21 (.656). After tendering his resignation from the Packers on Jan. 31, 1950, Lambeau went on to coach the Chicago Cardinals (1950-1951) and the Washington Redskins (1952-1953). Born in Green Bay on Apr. 9, 1898, Curly passed away on Jun. 1, 1965, at the age of 67. On Sept. 11, 1965, New City Stadium was rededicated as Lambeau Field. Nearly 40 years later, on Sept. 7, 2003, Curly's Pub opened its doors to the public serving the type of food that Lambeau would have really liked, in a place that he truly loved—The Frozen Tundra, home of the Green Bay Packers.
